FLOOR DEBATE

March 10, 2006

LB 454A

upon the Attorney General and his or her assistant. The case shall be prosecuted as a civil case, and the permit shall be revoked upon showing a preponderance of the evidence that permitholder does not meet one or more of the requirements. A person who has had his or her permit revoked under the section may be fined up to $1,000, and shall be charged with the cost of the prosecution. The money collected under this subsection as an administrative fine shall be remitted to the State Treasurer for distribution in accordance with a section of the Constitution of Nebraska. And they shall carry on his or her person their permit at all times, his or her Nebraska driver's license or their state ID card or military identification card any time they are carrying a concealed handgun. And again, right now, the police, contrary to what we heard yesterday, the police do assume that everyone is armed that the pull over now. Part of the cost of getting this, the start-up, is the DMV software that's going to be put in, to where the people who have been registered, have been trained, will immediately show up on the screen when that...when they run up their plate. Before the police officer even gets out of the car, he will know if they are a permitholder. Again, we are carving out a section of the current gun owning population that wants to be recognized as safe, that wants to be recognized as law-abiding, and wants to follow this section of the law. We will still have the 28-1202 people over here, who are not having criminal background checks, who are...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR COMBS: ...currently carrying, and who have no training. If you want to be afraid of anything, you need to be afraid of those people that's been walking around since that law started. And I, you know, would challenge you to tell me how many of those people, you know, are currently causing problems that are carrying under the affirmative defense, how many of those people have been arrested in any of these places. Because that's what's going on. What we are doing is we're making the 28-1202 people safer. We are ensuring better public safety. And as Senator Schimek was kind enough to point out, we are putting more money into the Public Safety Trust Fund till. So this law is only taking people who already have guns and making them
